

Performance Metrics

2010 Paul Coverdell Forensic Science Improvement Grant

At the beginning of the grant period, the number of days between submission of a sample to a forensic science laboratory and delivery of test results to a requesting office or agency.

81 days

At the end of this reporting period, the number of days between submission of a sample to a forensic science laboratory and delivery of test results to a requesting office or agency.

62 days

At the end of this reporting period, the change in the number of days between submission of a sample to a forensic science laboratory and delivery of test results to a requesting office or agency.

-19 days

Number of backlogged cases at the beginning of the grant period.

2009 cases, 3416 items contained in those cases

At the end of the reporting period, the number of backlogged cases.

1572 cases, 2672 items contained in those cases

The number of backlogged forensic cases analyzed with Coverdell funds (if applicable to the grant) in this reporting period.

145 cases, 246 items contained in those cases

Number of medical examiner personnel attending training programs (if applicable to the grant) in this reporting period.

Not Applicable

Number of forensic science personnel attending training (if applicable to the grant) in this reporting period.

3 chemists attended DEA School Reston, VA
10 chemists attended GC/MS training conducted on-site

Reporting Period January 1, 2011 to June 30, 2011